Comments:	A juvenile adjudicated delinquent, after reaching age 17, may petition the court to expunge the court record of the adjudication. The court may expunge the court's record of adjudication if it finds that: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• the provisions of the dispositional order have been satisfactorily completed; and,• the juvenile will benefit; and,• society will not be harmed by the expungement. This form may be used either with or without a hearing, depending on the court prerogatives based on the district attorney's recommendation. Presumably, however, if the petitioner files the petition even with a district attorney disapproval, the petitioner is probably entitled to a hearing on the matter.
